

Invitation to EntréChange: Be Inspired Seminar Series

You are cordially invited to EntréChange: Be Inspired Series: Public Talks & Presentation!

Join us as we take an in-depth look at social enterprises and the work that they do to create sustainable positive societal change. Expect high quality student presentations on solutions and strategies to current challenges that social enterprises and socially-focused companies are facing. Come face to face with real social entrepreneurs and listen to their passion and experiences in their quest to create sustainable societal change.

The objective for EntréChange is: To present entrepreneurship as a feasible & powerful driving element towards sustainability and social change to the young generation. This initiative is targeted at students in Stockholm interested in social entrepreneurship, aiming to add value to the education. Make a positive difference to the lives of others together with MYC4, Akvo and Rehact.

We look forward to see you!
