

SE Bar, list of speakers

March 31, 2010

O2

Website: www.o2.se

Linda Magnusson was appointed Green Capitalist of the Year in 2009 by the Swedish magazine Veckans Affärer. Linda is responsible for sales and communication at O2, a green company within windpower who both builds wind power plants and sells wind power electricity. She is also CEO of O2 Vindel that sells shares in wind power plants.

Speaker: Linda Magnusson

February 24, 2010

Mjuka Flytten

Website: www.mjukaflytten.se

Mjuka Flytten helps accompanying children with the support and guidance they need before, during and after an expatriation or a long-term stay abroad.

Speaker: Sara Wallén

January 27, 2010

Basta

Website: www.basta.se

Basta is a company that offers people a road away from drugs and criminality through qualified work, housing and a meaningful spare time. The people who work and live at Basta have themselves, to a varied extent, had drug problems. This applies to management, middle management and more or less to everyone that works in the company.

Speaker: Alec Carlberg and Kristina Blixt

November 25, 2009

Telge-koncernen

Website: www.telge.se

SE Bar on how a small municipal energy company can become one of Sweden's most innovative and challenging groups. How unconventional methods solve some of Södertälje's biggest challenges.

Speaker: Kjell Hasslert

October 28, 2009

Meltwater Entrepreneurial School of Technology (MEST)

Website: www.meltwater.org

SE Bar on how a small company can make a big difference. MEST is the not for profit arm of the international software company Meltwater Group and equips young graduates in Ghana, West Africa, with the necessary skills to start their own software companies with a goal to compete on the global markets.

Speaker: Ylva Strander

September 30, 2009

Ideas for Change (IFC)

Website: www.ideasforchange.tv

SE Bar on the possibilities and challenges that are out there when working for a good cause and at the same time aiming at becoming economically sustainable.

Speaker: Daniel

August 26, 2009

Swedish Sustainability Foundation (SSF)

Website: www.sustainablefuture.se

SE Bar on how SSF supports young innovative scientists to start projects and enterprises that use modern science for sustainable improvement of human life.

Speaker: Aapo Säsk and Abdul Kader

June 24, 2009

Solvatten AB

Website: www.solvatten.se

SE Bar on the invention "Solvatten" that makes it possible to purify dirty water with the help of solar heat.

Speaker: Petra Wadström and Claire Wigg

May 27, 2009

Nordic Microcap

Website: www.mikrofinans.se

SE Bar on SE Forum's two projects in Kenya with focus on social entrepreneurship, poverty reduction and business development in Kenya.

Speaker: Andreas Ullsten

April 29, 2009

Social Initiative

Website: www.socialinitiative.se

SE Bar on Social Initiative that is the link between companies that want to engage socially and social entrepreneurs who bring about positive changes in society.

Speaker:

March 25, 2009

Wiminvest

Website: www.wiminvest.se

SE Bar on the start-up story of the company devoted to putting more women into leading business positions. They do this by starting from the beginning and getting companies to early invest and develop the talented women they want to see in management and in their boards in the future.

Speaker: Sofia Falk

February 25, 2009

Cradle to Cradle

Website: www.mbdc.com

SE Bar on groundbreaking design philosophy created by the German chemist Michael Braungart and the American architect William McDonough. The idea is to create materials, products, industrial systems, buildings or even regional plans with their "next life" already in mind.

Speaker: Magnus Hedenmark and Mattias Ohlsson

January 28, 2009

PeePoople

Website: <http://www.peepoople.com>

SE Bar on the inspiring companies PeePoople, the developers behind the PeePoo-bag with mission that all people who so desire shall have access to dignified and hygienic sanitation.

Speaker:

December 3, 2008

MYC4

Website: www.myc4.com

SE Bar on connecting investors with small scale businesses in Africa by making it possible for an investor to give micro credits to a person or an established small business.

Speaker: Hanna Hallin

October 29, 2008

Coompanion

Website: www.coompanion.se

SE Bar on Coompanion's interesting experiences from different development projects and about the great challenges of starting a social enterprise.

Speaker: Bridget Wedberg

September 24, 2008

Magazine Gringo

Website:

SE Bar on the experiences on establishing the Swedish magazine Gringo and about running as a social movement where the collective benefit is more important than economic profits.

Speaker: Carlos Ejemyr Rojas and Zanyar Adami

December, 2007

SE Forum

Website: www.se-forum.se

SE Bar on how social entrepreneurship can contribute to poverty reduction and what the role of the SE Forum and other organizations can be.

Speaker: Harry McNeil

November, 2007

Fittja Drift & Underhåll

Website: www.fidr.se

SE Bar on the successful story of a company with business concept to hire people who are inactive and outside the labour market.

Speaker: Imran Ahmad